

Initial Teacher Training School Direct

What will it achieve?

By training to teach with the L.E.A.D. Urban Teaching School Alliance you will gain:

- A PGCE from the University of Nottingham
- Qualified Teacher Status
- Up to 60 masters credits (towards a 180 credit MA Education degree)
- The development of the unique skills and attributes needed to teach in vibrant urban settings, through involvement with our Urban Curriculum.

We offer initial teacher training, in partnership with the University of Nottingham, for both primary and secondary phases. Our website details the subjects we are recruiting for currently.

Entry Requirements - Primary

You are required to hold a UK degree or equivalent qualification GCSE English Language and Mathematics at grade C or above GCSE Science at grade C or above

Entry Requirements – Secondary

You are required to hold a UK degree or equivalent qualification Your degree must be in or closely related to your proposed teaching subject. GCSE English Language and Mathematics at grade C or above

What does it involve?

You will be placed in a school within our Alliance and follow that school's calendar, working in school four days per week. You also follow the timetable at the University which includes attending the University each Friday.

In addition students training within our Alliance access our Urban Curriculum for one afternoon session each half term. This is an excellent opportunity to learn as part of a professional cohort of teachers beginning training in an urban setting.
